Baseball Discussion.
There was a meeting of the directors of the Scottdale Baseball Association on Thursday evening at which several matters were discussed. There will be another meeting of the board on Tuesday evening and it is hoped at this time to come to some decision so that the plans the board has formulated may be made public. It was stated that Manager Hickman had been busy and while he was trying to keep some ball players that put Scottdale on the map when it comes to semi-professional ball, there was nothing that could be made public, as Manager Hickman before making any announcement, wishes to be absolutely sure of his men.

Good Friday Services.
The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church held service.

Faith Brought Forth by War.
The great harvest of death in France brought the subject of life everlasting more closely home to millions of men and women than it was ever brought before and has made Easter a more significant festival, for it stands for resurrection and only faith in that doctrine, that mystery, can reconcile those who make the great sacrifice to their fate or can console those who mourn. The very war itself has injected this faith. Whenever soldiers who have been at the front express themselves on the subject, it is to show belief in a future life. The testimony of chaplains and of nurses in that the men do not consider the destruction of their bodies the end of all.—New York Sun.

Broadcasting Hotel Orders.
Homer Greeley of the weird handwriting could never have held the position of a hotel manager or an assistant manager of one of our modern hostelries. His penmanship was too li-cible. The management of big hotel departments, from the cold storage to the linen departments, involves the use of the tel-autograph to a marvelous extent. "Miss Jolly host of the old-time hostelry needs to be an electrical expert to manage things by modern methods. He sits in his office and the moving finger beside him which records his orders is a tel-autograph, which inscribes his messages at the same time in as many departments as he desires by the pressure of a finger upon electric buttons.

Custom is Ancient One.
The dyed Easter egg is a thing which goes back deep into pre-Christian times as a custom of the people of northern Europe, and it may be that they got the habit from older peoples. A writer has set it forth that "from the festival of Easter as observed among the Norwegians arose the symbols of the Easter egg and the Easter rabbit as prolific reproducers of species, and the color of the Easter eggs—red, blue, yellow, etc.—was borrowed from the rays of the Aurora Borealis—northern lights—and the dawning hues of the Easter sun."

RESURGAM

This is the festival for you and me, When Hope springs up beside her's Memory.
Sweet growing in the hearts of every one, Woman or man who proudly gave a son.
Some have come back, but some, alas,
No more.
Will stop across the threshold of our door,
And, with a smile of youth and hope and cheer, Make day of night and summer all the year.
Yes, some came back, clear-eyed and strong,
And where Contending they in body and in soul, Wearing their honors with such modesty, That, through our tears of pride we scarce can see.
But some came back all broken on the wheel Of War! Dear Christ, how must those soldiers feel The need of patience in adversity—The need to learn the lesson which Through them we must learn. They had the Calvary!
On Freedom's battlefield, their bodies lay, Where as the breast he broke, a wound of there.
In that high chamber and their blood as wine, They split, Christlike, for us—your sons.
And now, like him, this Resurrection morn, They lift themselves above their wounds, New-born, Resplendent, crippled though they are, Whose souls have need to heal, not allow the scar.
Though bodies cannot enter in this life, They'll bear the burden and burden of the strife.
And those, our dead, who could no longer stay, But, like their Lord, have passed upon their way.
They sang Resurgam with their dying breath, Bidding together Liberty and Death!
The Lord has risen! He has risen, indeed!
And with Him those brave souls to Intercede.
On our behalf, who only stand and wait Until we're bid to enter at that Gate.
He's risen, indeed, and through that glorious fact We get the strength to hear, the power to act.
Our trinity of boys by Him are led,
The strong, the crippled, and the splendid dead!
—Caroline Russell Blapham, in the New York Times.

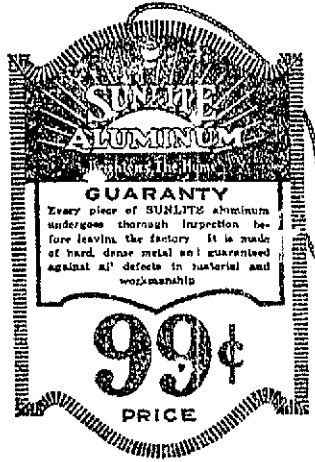

Always Room.
"There's always room for a forceful man, and he makes room for many." This is a notion of a very prominent business man, and he repeats it over and over again. The way a man becomes forceful—is to use his very best judgment in every effort he puts forth in his daily life. In using his best judgment, he aims to save a certain part of his earnings, whether they be large or small, by placing them in a good banking institution, such as the Citizens National Bank of Connelville, where there is always room for you—and more after the first of June—advertisement.

THE CROOK WHO WASN'T PENSIONED

AN interesting case gained wide currency recently to the effect that a famous retired crook, caught beating a slot machine by depositing a slug instead of a nickel, was carried on the pension list of the American Bankers Association. The idea was that the pension kept him from robbing banks, but T. N. Shepherd, executive manager of the Association, promptly spoiled the story.

"There is absolutely no basis for this report," he said. "The American Bankers Association conducts a protective department to prevent and prosecute criminal activities against banks who are members of the Association, with a view to the idea of safeguarding property and bringing just punishment to offenders, but it is no part of the work of the Association to buy off criminals directly or indirectly. The rules of the department expressly provide that no case once committed by a member bank to the Association can be taken out of its hands, nor the offense condoned or compromised. Much less would a blanket compromise of money tribute be exacted from any crook by means of money tribute to the Association. The only position that the Association has is one for retired employees in recognition for long and meritorious services."

CITY LEAGUE TITLE AT STAKE IN TUESDAY GAME; ST. VINCENT VS. FRAT

If Green Team Wins It Gets Leaguo Pennant; Frat
Sure of Third.

CASEYS HOLDING SECOND

With one of the most critical points which has yet marked the City Basketball League, now approaching in the Friday-Saturday St. Vincent game next Tuesday at the High School gymnasium, the interest of followers of three teams is at a high pitch. Two organizations, the Casey Club and the St. Vincent Club, are vitally concerned, and the Fraternity has one last opportunity to raise its percentage in the "club standing" column.

If the Fraternity defeats the Casey Club, it will result between the Casey and St. Vincent for first place. However if the Casey Club wins, then the Casey Club will have clinched first place. A great battle is the prospect and the Fraternity will find itself backed by more roots than have encouraged the team all season.

The game is the only one scheduled for Tuesday evening. It will begin at 8:15 o'clock. The Casey Club worked at a fast clip against the Legion and the Fraternity has been showing poor form in its last three games. As a result the St. Vincent team is the favorite, but fans point out that favorites often lose, especially in the local City League.

Of Interest to Fans.

The present cold weather is not conducive to ending training for the county high school meet. Coach Wino will probably have his candidates loosened up from inside work before taking them into the open.

Sand-lot baseball is getting into swing. The youngsters are saving their pennies for new gloves and bats.

If the Friday-Saturday game next Tuesday results in a tie in the City League a series of three games, to determine the title holder, will be arranged. St. Vincent and Casey Club clashed in the title series last year and the Green organization walked away with honors in two games.

Using Commercial Fertilizer

Commercial fertilizers are described by a code consisting of three numbers separated by hyphens, such as for example, 3-11-1, and 3-3-4. The first number is the percentage of nitrogen or ammonia contained in the mixture; the second, the percentage of phosphorus; and the third the percentage of phosphate. These are the three chief elements of fertilizer. Mixtures containing the greatest percentage of potash are the best for root crops. Those containing a heavy ratio of nitrogen are better for leaf growth.

While it is wasteful to burn leaves and vegetable rubbish in the spring or fall when it might be composted, some of it such as cornstalks, asparagus tops, pea and bean vines are so coarse that their disintegration takes a long time. If these are burned the ashes should be saved and spread over the garden as they contain valuable fertilizing content in the way of potash. Wood ashes are especially valuable in potash and all available should be spread over the garden.

Scarcely and often is the best method to hang up in connection with the use of commercial fertilizer, particularly those strong in nitrogen.
Light sprinklings here in every two weeks will prove more effective than heavier dressings which furnish more food than the plants can use.

Nitrate of soda, one of the most effective and quickest acting fertilizers, should be used very sparingly at each application. It should not touch the leaves of the plants, as it will burn them. It is best applied when the soil is moist. It should be powdered finely by smothering the pumpkin before it is discarded over the surface of the soil. It is the great encourager of plant growth and in the early spring is very effective on asparagus beds.

Done meal is slow acting fertilizer and one of the most permanent. Some of its fertilizing property is utilized of its fertilizing property but as it remains in the ground and decays it furnishes a constant supply for at least a year.
It cannot harm the plants and is one of the safest and best of the com-

PAIGE

JEWETT SIX PAIGE BUILT

310% Increase In Sales!

IN JANUARY, FEBRUARY AND MARCH, 1923

Three Times as Many People Selected Paiges and Jewetts as in the Same Months of 1922

AND we could sell twice as many if we could make them. For Paige and Jewett sales are governed only by what we can produce. As far ahead as we can see Paige and Jewett will go through 1923 with an increase in business never before witnessed in the industry.

It took the public nearly a year to find out how good the Jewett is. This Paige-designed, Paige-built, moderate size six is the huskiest built car of its size. It has the biggest motor of any car its size—50 horsepower. And so in spite of its sturdy construction it is the most active car you ever tried out in a speed brush —5 to 25 miles an hour in 7 seconds. Try it.

Paige-Timken axles front and rear. Ball-bearing steering spindles. Springs 80% of the wheel base. Paige-type clutch and transmission prevent motor stalling; gear changing is so easy you can drop from high to second at 30 miles an hour. If you want the best car $1065 ever bought now is the time to buy.

Our Ideal Paige—long the Most Beautiful Car in America—is now more beautiful and enduring than ever. Richness you can see and feel—not a piece of imitation leather in the entire car. The body made proof against squeaks and rattles by double strips of patent leather which prevent metal touching metal or wood.

The Paige 6-70 motor with silent timing chain and high-pressure oiling system possesses silence which will endure—power that will not diminish. With rear springs more than five feet long, Paige-Timken axles front and rear, ball-bearing steering spindles, and new clutch and transmission—our Ideal Paige rides and drives as no car ever could before.

Paige is equipped with two extra cord tires, two bumpers, shock absorbers, gasoline gauge on dash, motorometer, automatic windshield wiper—everything you could think of. By far the finest car Paige ever produced, and fully equipped it costs only $2450.

The Greatest Improve- ment Ever Made In Warm Air Heating!

This type of Down Draft Furnace, patented by DeLoe and Freshley, is made particularly for the discriminating buyer, who is looking for the highest and most efficient type of furnace construction.

METHODS OF HEATING

For the home nothing approaches the warm air heat. Much depends upon the installation of the warm air furnace the kind of pipes used and the proper installation of the same.
Of course it is understood that no heating system will give satisfactory results unless it is adequate in size and properly installed. The house owner in too many cases has accepted the lowest bid on his heating job and has suffered the consequences.

Build Your Home This Year

While lumber prices are nearly three times the pre-war level, everything that goes into the building of a house is as high or higher.

It is an assured fact that the builder who is waiting for substantially lower prices will have to put off building until 1925 or later.

However lumber prices will always be higher in relation to other commodities than before the war.

The growth of the country means steady-ly increasing requirements, while lumber resources are just as steadily diminishing.
